DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: stabilizer i).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 1713

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-5,11,12 and 15-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Krockenberger et al US 5,807,504.

5. This patent shows stabilizer compositions which incorporate the claimed compound of formula I, see formula I in the patent. This patent further uses this compound in combination with stabilizer compounds which are the claimed ethoxylated amine, see compound of formula IV in the patent. In view the claims are seen to be anticipated from this teaching.

6. Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Krockenberger et al US 5,807,504.

7. This patent extensively teaches stabilizer compositions as stated supra. The difference between the claims and the patent is the selection of the claimed species of stabilizer. Given the broad disclosure of the stabilizer combinations shown in the patent and the art recognized conventionality and commercial availability of the claimed stabilizers, one of ordinary skill would be motivated to select the compounds of the claims and have them function in an expected manner.

Information Disclosure Statement

8. The information disclosure statement filed 2/25/05 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information crossed through has not been considered.
